Highlights

Caleb's approach to litigation draws from his strong background and experience in business, as well as five years' service as Staff Attorney to the Honorable Linda G. Morrissey, District Judge of the Fourteenth Judicial District of Oklahoma. As Staff Attorney, Caleb did not just review motions and briefs and research law, but also prepared materials for jury trials, managed the court's civil case docket and otherwise kept the trains running on time.

In private practice, Caleb has taken the lead role in complex commercial and insurance litigation matters, including considerable appellate practice.
